

Artwork by Laguna's Greg Bond

A short note to announce Sept 26th as the date for this years Aquathon Please check the website for more info. Especially to sign up and Donate to the LBOLF (Laguna Beach Ocean Lifeguard Foundation) The Aquathon site has past years photos and call-out for several thousand $'s donated the past years.

The amount of sea life along the Laguna Coast is great, even with 10' visibility, see below recent photos.

The plan will be to meet at Crescent Bay, travel as far as TAB, get on the Laguna Trolley for a ride back to Aliso and join the throngs of water soaked Aquathoners at the Lost Pier Cafe.

And please plan to Donate via our website RSVP link on the Homepage of Aquathon.com

More info to come in the next weeks.

Victory Koredry can supply 'water resistant' shirts. If ordered in advance the Aqua Logo can be added to your shirt order.

The Aqua People

The trek along the several beaches is memorable . However, the amount of reef life in the Laguna Coastline after 8yrs of being a protected area is a treasure to be seen.